

Lesson 5: worksheet

Do you truly love our Lord? Does he soften your heart, or does he just represent the “all powerful” one who everyone obeys his command?

Pope Francis says a heart filled with love for God is able to turn simple thoughts into prayer even without words. What do you think he means by this?